

Calling all budding young artists! (3-8 years old)

Express Yourself!

Kidzu Children's Museum's popular family program celebrates the joy of making art. Explore the artistic process and unleash your creative talents at our Express Yourself! sessions offered every Saturday.

Upcoming Sessions

June 6th - Much more than the News: We will be using rolled newspaper to form rods that will be used to build a sculptural structure.

June 13th - Shaving Cream What? We will be using shaving cream and food coloring to explore color in this light and fluffy medium.

June 20th - Yum! Corn on the Cob: We will be using leftover corn cobs to use as a tool for printmaking.

June 27th - It's SO Hot: The crayons are melting. We will be using crayons on a warmed surface to create an abstract print.

Space is limited, sign up now!

Two sessions each week: Saturdays, 10:30-11:15am or 11:30am-12:15 pm
